Dear Editor,

Recently, we went to Windsor Safari Park. We went to see the lions and baboons in the bus, but it was so hot the animals were all asleep. But we did see the dolphins and the Killer Whale.

Soon I will be going on a school trip to London, and I hope to see the Changing of the Guard and the Tower of London.

Kevin Silcock, Ely.

H'm, there's one reader who shouldn't have any trouble answering Snap Happy's LONDON PICTURE QUIZ in the WHOOPEE HOLIDAY SPECIAL ... Editor.

★★★

Dear Editor,

I think your comic is smashing and I enjoy reading it very much. I thought I'd send you a picture of myself, and here it is. Incidentally, my favourite football team is Sunderland.

Karen Wilson, West Auckland.

Dear Editor,

My Mum bought me some tennis balls and a tennis racquet, and I decided to join a tennis club. Then I found out my friends were joining a different club, so I switched to their one. Later, I told them the good news . . . but they replied that they had done the same as me IN REVERSE and joined the club I went to first.

Michael Gallagher, Glasgow.

I see, you "court" each other out, eh... Editor.

★★★

Dear Evil Eye,

I like the way you make people evil. I think you must be looking my way sometimes because I feel evil on occasions. How did you get this special ray to affect people?

John Cross, Old Kent Road.

Er, would you believe I was a PUPIL at a H-eye school for Mischief Makers . . . Evil Eye

★★★

Dear Editor,

I liked the WHOOPEE! QUIZ BOOK very much. I enjoyed doing every part of it although I did not get every question right. The part I liked the best was the CROSSWORD. I think you should print some more crosswords in WHOOPEE! What do other readers think?

Kevin Bowyer, Crewe.

Come on, chums, join in the fun and have your say. I can't promise to print all the letters we receive, but a lot of you will be lucky and ALL your comments and opinions are welcomed . . . Editor.

★★★

Dear Editor,

I think the stories in WHOOPEE! are the funniest I've read and I like the new feature Fun-Fear very much. It's great.

Ita Lawton, Shepperton.

Dear Editor,

I have only just discovered your comic, and I think it is great. My WHOOPEE! comics are extra special. After I have read them, the rest of my family enjoy them, too. Then I send them on to my cousin in South Africa, and she in turn passes them on to her friends.

Kathryn Dunmore, Prescot.

Thank you for proving laughter can go a long, long way . . . Editor.

★★★

Dear Editor,

Every time I read WHOOPEE! I say to myself, when is Clobber the Kangaroo going to get back to Australia. . . and where will he live once he gets there?

David Stretton, Nottingham

Our homeward BOUND friend is almost there, David, and Alice SPRINGS seems a likely spot for a Kangaroo. . .Editor

★★★

Dear Editor,

Could you please print a picture of Captain James T. Kirk from Star Trek. He is my favourite TV star, and I always watch the programme when it is on.

Ian Johnson,
Nuneaton

I agree he's out of this world, but WHEN will his mission end? He must be jolly homesick by now . . .Editor

★★★

Dear Scared Stiff Sam,

You seem to be scared of everything, but isn't there just one thing you aren't scared of?

Stephen Oliver, Chester-le-Street.

Er . . . I'm scared of answering that in case I regret it later . . . Sam.

PLEASE PALS . . . when you write to WHOOPEE ! to take part in any of the participation features—fill in the coupon and attach it to your card or letter.

★★★

Dear Ossie,

I am ten years old and I read WHOOPEE! every week. Do you draw any of the picture strips?

Alan Blackhurst, Stockport.

No such luck, mate! The only thing I draw every week is my wages ... Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

My brother is always playing tricks on me, and the only way I can get my own back is to hide his copy of WHOOPEE! Here is a picture of him ... and he doesn't know I've sent it to you!

Gail Harper, Telford.

Oh, brother! He sure is in for a surprise ... Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

When my little sister was reading my WHOOPEE! she saw your picture and said to me: "Do you like that GIRL Ossie?" I told her I would write in and advise you to get your haircut. I hope you don't mind.

Catherine Ellen, Broxbourne.

Crikey, is it THAT bad? Let's take a vote on it, pals. At the moment it's four for the barber (you, your sister, Thingy and my Dad) and one (me) for the hair! ... Ossie.
